

TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 9, 1882.

LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES. May 9, 1882.
The Middle Atlantic States partly cloudy with light rains, westerly backing to southerly winds, stationary or higher temperature followed by falling barometer.

THE RELIEF HOOK AND LADDER COMPANY. The fair for the benefit of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company of this city was opened at Armory Hall last night. The hall, profusely decorated, presents a handsome appearance. In the center a magnificent evergreen bower, filled with flowering flowers. This bower was presided over by the Misses Mattie and Annie Cora and Miss Kate Green, assisted by a number of tastefully arranged tables, on which are many useful and valuable articles. Table No. 1, refreshments, presided over by Mrs. W. B. Wadley and Miss Fanny Wood. Miss Kate Green and Miss Alice Latham have charge of table No. 2, where a good lunch can be obtained at a moderate price. Table No. 3, where are articles of beauty and value, among them a baby's carriage, a new and most popular baby, and a painted portrait, presented by the Rev. Dr. Gallaudet, is presided over by Mr. M. Latham and Miss Mary Ellen Latham. Miss Frank Cady, Miss Harlow and Miss Kate Nowland, table No. 4, also have charge of which can be seen a "Globe" case, presented to the Relief Hook and Ladder Company, is in charge of Mr. Edward H. Hawkins, assisted by the Misses Eva and Vera Eudi. Miss Agnes Smith, Miss Cassie Ludwig, the Misses Edna and Marie Crump, Miss Carrie Atwell and Miss Marie Ebert. The vote for the baby's carriage last night was: Birdie Watson, 1; Geo. Fisher, 6. The voting for the baby's carriage and baby, presented by Relief Hook and Ladder Company, No. 1, of Baltimore, and the gun, will be commenced tonight.

ANOTHER MIDDLE.—For some time past there has been considerable difference of opinion among the merchants on King street regarding their use of the sidewalk in front of their places of business. The trouble continued until it was apparent that something would have to be done to settle the matter. A complaint of the sidewalk having been made this morning, before the Mayor, by the Mayor's summons a number of merchants before the Mayor, and the matter came up for a hearing at seven o'clock. The Mayor's office was crowded and a good deal of interest was manifested. The corporation was represented by Captain K. Kemper, and the merchants by Mr. S. G. Brent. After hearing the views of the different business men on the subject, the Mayor stated that the law was perfectly plain that no one had a right over the sidewalk twelve inches beyond the building line, and that he would instruct the superintendent of Police to that effect. Subsequently the Mayor sent a letter to the superintendent of Police instructing him that all boxes, posts, swinging signs and other obstructions extending twelve inches from the building line, were in violation of the law, but as several members of the City Council had informed him that a bill could be introduced modifying the present law to permit the merchants to continue to use the sidewalks as has been their custom for thirty days. The matter will be brought to the attention of the City Council tonight.

BOULE NEWS. The Mayor had before him this morning Betsy Brown, colored, arrested for drunkenness, and George Stewart and "Shimeyee" Brooks, both colored, arrested for being drunk and disorderly on the streets. Betsy Brown was put to work on the station house, an occupation she did not relish, but which she preferred to being in jail. Stewart was released, as there was no evidence against him, Brooks, in default of the payment of a fine of $25, was sent to the chain gang for thirty days. Wm. Madella, colored, arrested later in the day for being drunk and disorderly at the yard of his parents' house, last night, was fined $5.

A station keeper was fined $10 for violation of the Sunday law.

Belle Fitzgerald. The Washington woman who was mentioned in yesterday's Gazette as having died early this morning at her residence in the First Ward, from pneumonia. Mrs. Fitzgerald, who was a lady of many excellent traits of character, was the oldest member of the Methodist Episcopal church in this city, having united herself with that church over sixty years ago. Her consistent and godly life during these three or four years attracted to her a large number of friends who will learn of her death with genuine sorrow.

RIVER TRADE.—Inspector Hawthurst reports the following arrivals at the river boat today:
Schooners Gen. U. S. Grant, Perkins, Baltimore, to W. A. Smoot; Sch. Virginia Day, Delaney, Havre de Grace, coal to McHenry & Co.; Canal boat Hunter, Brooke, and to City Gas works; Long boat Three Brothers, Taylor, wood to Master Fish Wharf; A. H. Pearl, Annie Gibson, Belvidere, Md.; Miami, Mary Rebecca, Croton and Gov. Hendricks.

IMPROVEMENTS AT THE SHIP YARD.—The dredging machine is still at work at the ship yard. When the dredging is completed, there will be a sufficient depth of water in the dock—eighteen feet at low water—to float any vessel that can reach this city. A railroad track, connecting with the Virginia Midland Railway track, has been run out to the end of the wharf at the yard, which will prove a great convenience. Other needed improvements to accommodate the business of the yard are being made.

WILL MAKE NO NOMINATIONS.—The executive committee of the readjuster party of this city held a meeting last night, with D. A. Windsor in the chair, and after some discussion, decided to nominate no candidates for the various offices to be voted for at the general election on the 25th inst. The committee also refused to endorse any independent candidate.

A regular semi-monthly meeting of the City Council will be held to-night.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mr. John R. Johnson is sick at his residence, in Arlington District, Alexandria county.

Mr. M. Schwaz, formerly travelling agent for Porter's Brewery, has accepted a position with C. Conrad & Co., wholesale liquor dealers in St. Louis.

The Committee on Streets of the City Council, commenced to-day the work of filling in the dock at the foot of Prince street.

G. W. Brooks, esq., a former resident of this city, but now of the firm of Brooks & Parker, stove dealers of Petersburg, Va., was in the city to-day en-route to New York on business.

A large number of young shad from the Fish Commissioners in Washington, passed through here yesterday, over the Virginia Midland railroad, for Georgia, to be placed in the rivers of that State.

Rev. Dr. Gallaudet will hold a service in Christ Church, at 8 o'clock on Wednesday night, for dead nutes. He will explain their language and present their case. All are invited.

The north bound train over the Virginia Midland Railway, due here early this morning, did not arrive until late this evening, having been delayed by the breaking of an axle.

Mr. Henry Englehardt will have the body of the man found dead, and buried, near Georgetown, a few days ago, supposed to be the German Switzer, who mysteriously disappeared from his brewery, in West End, disinterred to-morrow for identification.

A match game of base ball was played yesterday on the grounds near the Episcopal High School between a mixed nine of the Howard Club, of that school, and the Independent Club of this city, with the following result: Independents 13, Howards 4.

The registration books were opened at the various polling places in this city this morning. Up to three o'clock this afternoon a good number of transfers had been granted, but only a few new voters had been registered. The present registration books are in a dilapidated condition, and new ones are much needed.

Another Gross of "Ideal" Coffee and Tea Pots Just received. They are perfect, as hundreds in this city and elsewhere can testify. It stands on its own merits. If after a week's trial it does not do as represented return it and have your money refunded. Send for price list.

A Great House.

Likes, Berwanger & Co., No. 310-Seventh street northwest, claim to be the only house in Washington that manufactures its own goods, and they make this claim with positive knowledge that it cannot be honestly disputed. Every article of clothing in their stock is made by them, and they, therefore, are safe in warranting the goods they offer to the public as superior in material, cut and make to those found elsewhere in the city. They have achieved a reputation for the general excellence of their goods, and particularly in the matter of fitting. The average coat, vest and pants in their stock is quite equal to the best custom made work in this respect. Every variety of fashionable style and design is contained in their stock. Their spring lines in coats, vests, pants, overcoats, etc., are very full and attractive. It is worth a visit to their large establishment to see the extent and variety of the goods they offer. Everything needed by the largest man to the smallest boy is visible and for sale there at most reasonable prices—prices considerably less than elsewhere. Every kind of cloth and the best of every kind, cut and made up in the most artistic manner—broadcloths, cassimers, chevilles, diagonals, flannels, tweeds, etc. Every reader of this notice should do himself the justice of calling on Likes, Berwanger & Co., for the purpose of comparing their goods and prices with those of other establishments before purchasing. This firm is confident that it is offering better goods for less money than any other house in the clothing line in Washington. Call on them before buying: You will not be expected to buy unless you are glad to do so. Suits from $8 to $20 for boys; from $2.50 to $15 for children. my 4
